INTRODUCTION

About your Personal Reading

This reading was composed for you personally, BERNIE, and is based on your full name at birth, your date of birth, and the name you now use to introduce yourself. Please check your birth data on the title page to make sure the names and date of birth used are correct.

If you have two or more middle names or last names, you may find the names strung together. This is necessary to make Transit and Essence cycles function correctly. For example, the name John Patrick Henry Hancock would appear on the title page as John PatrickHenry Hancock.

BERNIE, your Personal Numerology Reading describes all aspects of your chart as they are understood in numerology, accurately and in-depth.

Each chapter starts with a short introduction telling you where this particular number is found and how it affects you. This is followed by the number itself. Often, you will find a double digit number followed by a single digit.

The meaning of your number is then explained in easy to read language. BERNIE, you don't need to know anything about numerology to be able to enjoy and benefit from this reading.

I hope you will enjoy your reading.

LIFE PATH

If ever there was a moment of total transformation, it was the moment of your birth. In that instant, you stepped through a door in time into a new reality -- the reality of human life. The most important number in your numerology chart is based on the date of your birth, the moment when the curtain goes up in your life.

Even at that moment, you were a person with your own unique character, as unique as your DNA. Everything that is you existed in potential, much like a play that is about to begin. Your entire life exists as a potential that has been prepared for. BERNIE, you have ultimate freedom to do with your life as you like: To fulfill its potential completely, or to make some smaller version of yourself. It all depends upon your effort and commitment. You make the decisions to fulfill, to whatever extent, the potential life that exists within you. That is your choice. In this sense, the possible you is implicit during the moment of your birth.

The Life Path number gives us a broad outline of the opportunities, challenges, and lessons we will encounter in this lifetime. Your Life path is the road you are traveling. It reveals the opportunities and challenges you will face in life. Your Life Path number is the single most important information available in your Personality Chart!

Your Life Path is 23/5

The key to your personality is freedom. BERNIE, you love travel, adventure, variety and meeting new people. You possess the curiosity of a cat and long to experience all of life. You love to be involved in several things at the same time as long as you are not tied down to any one area. You like change, new things and new horizons. You make friends easily; your personality is upbeat and often inspiring attracting people from all walks of life. You have a way of words and an uncanny ability to motivate others. You can be in sales, advertising, publicity, promotion, politics or any profession that requires your communication skills and understanding of people. You likely lack discipline and order.

You can also be impulsive, doing or expressing things you regret later. Freedom and a need for adventure sometimes is not properly controlled by those born with this Life Path, causing problems with drug abuse, overindulgence in food or sex, or generally abusing the gift of life. You are sensual and love to taste all of life. Sex, food and other sensory experiences are essential to the enjoyment of your life. You find it difficult to commit to one relationship, but once committed you can be as faithful as an old dog. You are multi-talented and possess a variety of diverse abilities. However, discipline and focus are the true keys to your success. Without these many of the tasks you begin will remain unfinished and you will fail to realize the true fruits of your abilities. With hard work and perseverance the sky is the limit. You may have been perceived as a wild child by adults and a source of concern by your family. However, do not be obliged to hurry your choice of career. You are often a late-bloomer and need to experience life before you can truly know and commit to your heart's desire. BERNIE, your challenge is to learn the true meaning of freedom. Change is constant in your world requiring adaptability and courage.

Try to maintain an exercise program, keep your body in shape and limber. The flexibility and durability of your body will promote security and confidence within you. You yearn for freedom and self-employment attracts you powerfully. Your challenge is to settle into one area to cultivate your ability sufficiently to earn a living and attain success. Once you find your niche the motivation and inspiration you supply others will bring you much in return, you will find your friends and colleagues supporting and promoting you on the road to success.

BIRTHDAY

The day you were born bears great significance in understanding who you are and where your talents lie. The day of birth indicates some special talent you possess. It is a gift to you that will help you along your Life's Path. Your day of birth is one of your four core numbers -- the Life Path, Expression, and Heart's Desire being the other three. It is the least significant of the four core numbers, but perhaps the most finite, in that it reveals a specific ability you possess in a marked degree.

Your Birthday is 8

BERNIE, you have a talent for business, and a good sense of money. Your approach to business is original, creative and daring. You have sound judgment and need the freedom to exercise it, lest you become bitter and tyrannical elsewhere in your life. It is advisable to avoid partnerships wherever possible. You are highly competitive and close partnerships -- especially when power is divided equally -- can lead you to indulge in intrigues and manipulation.

You are efficient and can handle large projects. If you do not already run your department or own business, you are destined for such a position. Leadership is your gift. In the same way, you have a great talent for organization. You can manage large groups of people and guide them along the lines of your vision.

You are a realist, self-confident, practical, ambitious and goal-oriented. Others respect you and your judgment. They know that you can be depended upon, you come through.

You enjoy a challenge. The expectations of others stimulate you, especially if they doubt you can pull it off. You tend to be dramatic with money. You have a need for status and may show off the fruits of your labor with an impressive car or house. You are proud of your family and like to be complemented. You have strong character, but may be domineering and bossy. You have little patience with weakness, be it your own or someone else's. You do not express your feelings much.

You must develop the qualities of perseverance and survival. You will meet many obstacles, which must be viewed as challenges that in fact make you stronger. Your attitude toward the difficulties in life will be the difference between success and failure.

EXPRESSION

Your Expression number reveals your physical and mental constitution, the orientation or goal of your life. Some numerologists refer to this number as the Destiny, because it represents a lifelong target at which you are aiming. You work at fulfilling this potential every day of your life. Thus, the Expression number reveals your inner goal, the person you aim to be.

The Expression number reveals the talents, abilities, and shortcomings that were with you when you entered your human body. Your name, and the numbers derived from it, reveals your development, as well as the talents and issues you will be working with during this life.

For those for whom reincarnation is an accepted philosophy, the vibration of your full name can be seen as the totality of your personal evolution, the experiences, talents, and wisdom accumulated over many life times. Every experience, no matter how great or small, along this evolutionary path has influenced your development, and brought you to your current state of being.

The Expression is your being; the Life Path is the major lesson you are attempting to learn this time around. Time allows the gradual emergence of your personality. By reading the Expression number below, you will come to understand your basic nature and the abilities and issues inherent in your being.

Your Expression is 16/7

BERNIE, you are gifted with an analytical mind and an enormous appetite for the answers to life's hidden questions. You have a strong interest in exploring scientific matters, philosophy, and even mysticism. You possess clarity and persistence in your search for truth. You can be a great researcher, educator, and philosopher.

You are driven by a desire for knowledge and truth. You must learn to discriminate between illusion and reality, but you are well equipped for this task. Your fine mind offers you insight into the veiled mysteries of life. You also possess a considerable amount of perspective. Somewhere inside you, you are aware of a peaceful place that you call upon during difficult times.

BERNIE, you need time to be by yourself. Too much social interaction causes you stress. You need your privacy and a place that can be shut off from the hustle and bustle of life. You tend to keep your thoughts to yourself and are secretive. Unless you 7 expression is balanced by extrovert characteristics (usually revealed by the numbers 1, 3, 5, and 8), your introversion may pull you deeply within yourself, even cutting you off from others.

You have a strong dislike of the superficial and mundane. You are often surprised by the lack of understanding or depth of knowledge of others, many of whom do not take the search for knowledge as seriously as you do. This can cause you to be critical of others, and even cynical about life in general. The more cut off from others you become, the more hidden are your motives. Once you develop understanding of people and life, your advice and counsel will be sought by those around you who need your wisdom. You love to specialize your knowledge and develop great depth within your field. You are a perfectionist.

You should complete your studies early in life and not be driven too hard by a desire to be successful. Let things come at their own pace, be open to opportunity, but remember your rewards, satisfaction, and contentment come from a higher source.

Sevens can be distant and aloof. When dominated by their darker characteristics, they can be unfaithful, dishonest, and cruel. Contemplation, meditation, and the softer, finer vibrations of life can restore your sense of harmony and keep you on the path to peace and balance.

BERNIE, you have a logical mind. Your analytical skills cause you to approach a problem in a detached, surgical kind of way. Researchers, analysts, investigators, inventors, technicians, scholars, lawyers, bankers, watchmakers, priests, philosophers, theologians, and administrators in some scientific or technical field are among the vocations 7s are drawn to.

MINOR EXPRESSION

The Minor Expression number is based on the current (or short) name; the name you now use to introduce yourself including your last name. The influence of the short name is minor in comparison to your full name. Interestingly, the short name often compensates in some way for numbers (and their related characteristics) that are missing or out of balance in the full name. For instance, a number missing in the full name may show up prominently in the short name; or a number (or numbers) that appears in excess in the full name can be compensated for in the short name. If a name change takes place later in life through marriage or for professional reasons, it adds or subtracts certain qualities. It can also focus and intensify existing characteristics or talents that may be latent.

Your Minor Expression is 16/7

Your short name stimulates your desire for knowledge. It helps you to specialize and to deepen your understanding of a particular subject. It helps you to focus. BERNIE, your Minor Expression number encourages you to accumulate knowledge regarding the mysteries of life. It makes you a more analytical thinker. You are better able to look below the surface of things. You don't take things at face value. You may desire more time for private contemplation and meditation. This is a pull to spend more time alone.

HEART'S DESIRE

Your Heart's Desire is the inner you. It shows your underlying urge, your true motivation. It reveals the general intention behind many of your actions. Consequently, it dramatically influences the choices you make in life. The Heart's desire is seen as part of the larger picture, called the core numbers, which includes the Life Path, Expression, Day you were born, and Personality. But each points to a different aspect of you.

The Expression number reveals your talents and abilities, and your general direction in life. The Life Path is the central lesson you came into the world to learn. The Day you were born is very closely connected to your Life Path. It reveals specific talents you possess, which will be helpful to you in dealing with your Life Path. The Personality reveals how people tend to see you. It also demonstrates what characteristics you are projecting to the world. The Heart's Desire demonstrates the identity of the soul that joined the earth -- you, the spiritual being.

Your Heart's Desire is 12/3

BERNIE, you love a good time. You are generally happy, friendly, and outgoing. You have a gift for gab. You are very witty, creative, and playful. You inspire and entertain people. You are considered by many a great companion. Many outstanding comedians have this Heart's Desire. You have a good mental and emotional balance and there is little that gets you down. You have a gift for self expression and are drawn to the verbal arts -- writing, acting, singing, and poetry. You may have a great talent in one of these areas. If your creativity is blocked or suppressed, you tend to daydream and fantasize. Your imagination needs a constructive outlet; otherwise, it may run away with you.

At the same time, you may have great difficulty expressing your deeper feelings and important personal thoughts. You prefer to stay on the surface, entertaining people with your wit. If you fail to deal honestly with your inner nature, you may succumb to compulsive talking. Such behavior may be merely a way of siphoning off emotional energy that is building beneath your surface. Your deeply felt emotional life cannot be avoided or suppressed. But you possess the talent to channel these feelings into highly creative and artistic form. Art and self-expression are your outlets.

BERNIE, you need discipline to make full use of your abilities. Too often, you may scatter your energies in many directions, beginning projects that are never finished and never really succeeding in anything. Your success depends on your ability to commit to your work and to see it through to completion. You have so much creativity and inspiring upward energy that you are in desperate need of an anchor. Hard work and discipline serve this purpose and bring out the best in you.

Because you are gifted with such a sparkling personality, you are tempted to stay on the surface and play with life. You are confident and love the attention others give you, but these characteristics can lead to vanity and self-absorption.

BERNIE, you have the potential to live a very full and successful life thanks to your talent for artistic self-expression. The key to your success is a balance between the creative forces and self-discipline.

MINOR HEART'S DESIRE

The Minor Heart's Desire number is derived from the vowels of your current name; the name you now use to introduce yourself. The current name is a refinement of the more complex qualities of your longer name (the full name at birth). It sharpens and bundles the energies that are reflected by your full name. It intensifies certain aspects of your being, and de-emphasizes others. For this reason, the short name often provides insight into what you truly want in life. It also often reveals the extent of your understanding of what you want from this life. It reveals both your strong desires, and the limits you place upon your potential. Your feelings about your current name are different from your full name. It affects how you feel about yourself; it changes your identity slightly.

Your Minor Heart's Desire is 7

Your shortened name increases your desire to study, focus, and specialize in one particular field. It increases your need for privacy, contemplation, and meditation. You turn inward more and reflect on your inner nature. You are also more likely to ponder the deeper questions of life.

BERNIE, your Minor Heart's Desire enhances your intelligence and ability to deal with abstract information. You may find yourself expressing a kind of off-beat humor, as well. Sevens are highly refined and intuitive. They do not take things at face value, but seek the depths of understanding.

PERSONALITY

Your Personality number is derived from the consonants of your full name at birth. Your Personality is like a narrow entrance hall to the great room that is your true nature. It is those aspects that you feel comfortable sharing with people at the outset of a relationship. With time and trust, you invite others into the deeper aspects of your nature; you reveal more of who you really are, in effect, your Heart's Desire, Expression, and so on.

Your Personality number often serves as a censoring device, both in terms of what you send out, as well as what you allow to approach. It discriminates in the kinds of people and information you let enter your heart and mind. For this reason, your Personality is usually much more narrow and protective in its definition than the real you. It can screen out some of what you do not want to deal with -- people or situations -- but it also welcomes those things that immediately relate to your inner nature.

Your Personality number also indicates how others perceive you. No one can be objective about himself or herself. Even our closest friends and relatives have trouble describing how they see us.

Your Personality is 13/4

BERNIE, you radiate reliability and consistency. People trust you and feel secure with your judgment. You are seen as a cornerstone of a business and are relied upon to do your work efficiently and expertly. You have strength and respectability. You tend to dress in a utilitarian manner, concerned mostly with convention, practicality, durability, and price. You present yourself as someone who values correctness, control, and precision. All of this stems from the fact that your most prized characteristic is your work. You want to be judged on the basis of your performance, rather than your appearance.

You are frugal and have learned to respect a dollar. You are concerned about the security of your future and those you love. However, this may appear to others as a bit too austere. You tend to wear earth colors and conventional attire. You could benefit by putting a little flair in your dress. Wear more uplifting colors. Loosen your dress with less severe lines. If you wear a brown suit, include a bright tie or some jewelry.

You are a family person. You love the intimacy, consistency, and the security a family provides. You are a good provider and protector. But family members may take your efforts for granted.

BERNIE, you are a true patriot. You love your country and are an integral part of your community. Your consistency and adherence to your well-laid plans usually pays off in a comfortable and secure future.

MATURITY

Your Maturity number indicates an underlying wish or desire that gradually surfaces around age thirty to thirty-five. This underlying goal begins to emerge as you gain a better understanding of yourself. With self-knowledge comes a greater awareness of who you are, what your true goals in life are, and what direction you want to set for your life. This, in a nutshell, is the gift of maturity: You no longer waste time and energy on things that are not within your own special identity.

No matter what your age is at present, your life is being channeled in a specific direction, toward a very specific goal. That goal can be seen as a reward or the fulfillment of a promise that is implicit in your current efforts, often without your knowing it consciously. While the characteristics of this number are usually visible during childhood, we tend to lose sight of these aspects until later in life. But our lives are always being affected by this influence, nonetheless. Your Maturity number begins to have a more profound impact on your life after the age of 35. The influence of the number increases steadily as you grow older.

Your Maturity is 12/3

As you mature, BERNIE, you will find yourself becoming increasingly extroverted and optimistic about your future. Your self-expression and creativity improve markedly. You may become inspired to take up some type of artistic endeavor, such as writing, acting, or music, if you are not already involved in one of these areas. Your ability to communicate will substantially improve. You are naturally more fluent and may find yourself dressing with a certain flair. Be careful not to fall victim to superficial appearances, or chasing after glamour and extravagance. With a 3 Maturity Number you can look forward to a pleasant and social latter part of life. Your attitude will be increasingly positive and your popularity will rise.

If you already have several 3s in your chart, especially in your core numbers, you may have a tendency to scatter your energies and take your responsibilities less seriously. If you have few 3s, or are missing 3s entirely, you will experience a great relief from the tension and seriousness of life. You will be more relaxed and capable of enjoying life. The 3 Maturity Number is a blessing in the latter part of life. It promises enjoyment, close friendships, and much happiness.

L/E BRIDGE

The Bridge numbers in your chart are the numbers that indicate how you can make the relationship between the individual core numbers in your chart easier and more compatible. Bridge numbers have the potential to "close the gap" between the Life Path and Expression number, or the Heart's Desire and Personality number.

In this chapter we will explain what you can do to make your talents, strengths, and specific abilities (Expression number) more easily available and fitting the needs of your main lesson(s), and expected direction of growth (Life Path).

Your Life Path / Expression Bridge number is 2

BERNIE, be more sensitive to the needs and expectations of others. Do not rock the boat too often, but keep the peace and try to make things run smoothly. You have to use your ability to influence others with gentle diplomacy, instead of confrontations. Be more cooperative.

H/P BRIDGE

Several Bridge numbers can be found in your chart. The Bridge number between the Life Path number and the Expression number was described earlier in your reading. The following Bridge number relates to your Heart's Desire number and your Personality number. This Bridge number, the Heart's Desire - Personality bridge, explains how you can make your deeper self -- your needs and desires, your true nature -- more aligned with the part of your personality others tend to recognize when they meet you. With a little exaggeration, you could say that your Personality number is somewhat like your mask. It is the more superficial you; a protective shield and a camouflage of the deeper you. You can easily imagine how much more comfortable, and less self-conscious, the experience of life becomes when your deeper and more real you is closer and more fitting to the personality you reveal on a day to day basis.

Your Heart's Desire / Personality Bridge number is 1

BERNIE, you should rely more on your own strengths and abilities. Be more decisive; don't beat around the bush and be straightforward when expressing your thoughts and feelings. You need to take charge more often. Get off the beaten path and find original ways of doing things. Do not try to be conventional, or try so hard to behave according to the expectations of others.

KARMIC LESSONS

Numerology is based on the understanding that we enter life with certain strengths and weaknesses. Karmic lessons are areas that we are currently weak in and must be faced and worked on in this life. There can be more than one Karmic Lesson. These are indicated by the absence of certain numbers in your name.

The letters and numbers of your name point to talents and abilities that you possess. These characteristics can be compared to a workshop in which certain tools are available to you. Missing numbers, those that are not represented in the letters in your name, imply tools that are unavailable, and must be learned and mastered during this lifetime.

You may well recognize your Karmic Lessons as weaknesses you have learned to overcome in the course of your life, however, the challenges implied in your Karmic Lessons will continue to come up occasionally for the rest of your life.

You have a Karmic Lesson 3

BERNIE, you are highly self-critical. Every time you find yourself at the center of attention, you manage to find something in your performance to be entirely inadequate or embarrassing. You have established an impossible standard of perfection as the only measure of your actions. You need to lighten up on yourself. Realize that you have within you a critical faculty that must be contained and controlled. Otherwise, it can prevent you from doing what you truly enjoy in life.

BERNIE, you're too serious. Be more optimistic and cheerful, enjoy life as it was meant to be and share this joy with others. Life will put you in situations that require imagination and communication. You will be tested in these areas. You will be forced to face the challenge. Missing threes will often produce artists but their success requires much work and perseverance. The effects of this Karmic Lesson are diminished if you have at least one 3 among your core numbers (Life Path, Birthday, Hearts Desire, Expression, or Personality Number).

You have a Karmic Lesson 6

BERNIE, you have a major issue with commitment and responsibility to others. You have a hard time committing to marriage and other important personal relationships. You have to learn to show true emotion. You may feel isolated and alone, but do not understand why. The reason is that very often you form relationships yet remain heavily guarded, putting up a show of emotion without truly communicating affection or care. This can make the bond between you and others superficial. You must learn to establish sincere relationships.

BERNIE, you will learn the importance of close friends and lasting relationships. You will learn to give and, when necessary, sacrifice. This is the one true way to true friendship and lasting love. The effects of this Karmic Lesson are diminished if you have at least one 6 among your core numbers (Life Path, Birthday, Hearts Desire, Expression, or Personality Number).

You have a Karmic Lesson 7

BERNIE, you need to deepen your knowledge and talents in a specific discipline. You lack the will or determination to perfect yourself or a specific talent you possess. You must learn to be your own critic, without self condemnation, in order to bring your abilities to their full development. You will learn not to take things at face value. A superficial understanding of important matters will prevent you from experiencing the satisfaction of your true potential. The effects of this Karmic Lesson are diminished if you have at least one 7 among your core numbers (Life Path, Birthday, Hearts Desire, Expression, or Personality Number).

You have a Karmic Lesson 8

BERNIE, you can attract a considerable amount of money and even be a good business person, but you experience major ups and downs in your financial affairs, due largely to your lack of caution in handling your resources.

You are highly independent and do not want to be told how to do things. You have great problems with authority figures. This stems from a kind of know-it-all attitude and stubborn behavior that prevents you from knowing your limits. You will have to work at knowing how to handle money. In all likelihood, you will attract enough of it, but it has a tendency to slip through your fingers. This Karmic Lesson forces you to learn your limitations, and the limitations of your resources. Learn to be efficient. The effects of this Karmic Lesson are diminished if you have at least one 8 among your core numbers (Life Path, Birthday, Hearts Desire, Expression, or Personality Number).

HIDDEN PASSION

Your Hidden Passion reveals one or more special strengths and talents that you rely upon and are available to you. The Hidden Passion represents your specific field of expertise, or a concentrated talent.

Metaphorically, this talent can be seen as having a power all its own to shape your life. Its existence gives you a strong desire to develop and to express that particular ability. Having the talent demands that you express it, that you experience this part of you, and that you live according to its nature. In this way, the Hidden Passion shapes your personality, and guides your life.

Your Hidden Passion is 1

BERNIE, you have a strong drive to stand out. You have a great ambition and desire to accomplish. You are highly competitive and want to be the best and the first in everything you do. You are highly energetic and creative. You are capable of influencing and even dominating others. You have highly developed political skills, and can succumb to manipulation unless your ideals are high. Ironically, there are times when you lack confidence, especially at an earlier age, but you have the strength to overcome this obstacle.

BERNIE, you are a survivor, a warrior, a leader. Many great athletes and politicians have this number as a Hidden Passion.

Your Hidden Passion is 5

BERNIE, you love travel, change, and new challenges. You are highly adaptable and versatile. You have a talent for languages, and are generally good with words. Writing, promotion, and public relations work suit you perfectly.

You are sensual and a bit impulsive. You love to satisfy your senses, which can get you into trouble. Overindulgence in food, drink, sex, and drugs are common among people with too many 5s -- six or more.

You are resourceful and original. You have a good sense of humor and a quick tongue.

Your desire for freedom is extremely strong and it will take effort and discipline to stick with whatever it is you started. There is a tendency to give up a project or situation prematurely.

BERNIE, you may be interested in too many things, which can make it hard for you to apply yourself to one area successfully. You are very unconventional.

Commitment in relationships and your work is fundamental to your happiness. You may have a tendency to wander from person to person, job to job, making depth of relationship or deep expertise difficult.

PLANES OF EXPRESSION

Each of us experiences life on four different levels: with our physical body; our mental faculty; our emotional makeup; and our intuition. Each of these areas has a specific means of perceiving information. The physical body is capable of touch, taste, pleasure, and pain. It provides us with a sense of the physical world. The mental body, like the emotional and intuitive natures, perceives the invisible worlds. Our minds deal with the world of thought. The heart, of course, is preoccupied exclusively with the world of emotion. Our feelings teach us many things about ourselves and about others. Finally, we have the capacity for direct contact with the higher realms by way of intuition. Intuitive insight comes in a flash. It is not rational -- that is the world of the mental plane -- but comes as if it were placed at the doorstep of our minds. Intuition, therefore, bypasses all effort.

These four faculties exist in all of us. But each of us depends more on one or two of them for the bulk of our knowledge. Some of us are possessed by our senses, while others live almost exclusively in our hearts, or minds.

Numerology indicates how we as individuals function on each plane.

The letters of the alphabet are divided in four categories: physical, mental, emotional and intuitive. The proportion of each category in your name gives a good indication of which Planes of Expression are strongest in you, and which ones are weaker. These Planes of Expression can greatly help you to understand your talents and abilities.

PLANE OF EXPRESSION PHYSICAL

Your Plane of Expression Physical is 9

BERNIE, you have a strong presence. You are charismatic and have a dramatic flair in your personality, which may direct you to the theater.

You are also drawn to politics, publishing, promotion, and public service -- any career that requires a certain amount of time before the public. You are attracted to doing things on a large scale.

You are a humanitarian. You are concerned about the well being of society. You have a great deal of compassion, tolerance and generosity. You are highly idealistic and a bit of a dreamer. You are not particularly practical, however. Very often, you are not understood by others, and sometimes considered indifferent and aloof. In some way, you want to please everyone and tend to give promises that may be impossible to keep. If you develop your abilities, you have a significant chance to become famous.

PLANE OF EXPRESSION MENTAL

Your Plane of Expression Mental is 3

BERNIE, you are extremely artistic, creative, and a bit flamboyant. You are attuned to fashion, interior and architectural design. You have a talent for designing office space and landscaping. However, you can be scattered mentally, having thoughts pop in and out of your mind seemingly at random. You need to develop discipline and focus.

PLANE OF EXPRESSION EMOTIONAL

Your Plane of Expression Emotional is 13/4

BERNIE, you distrust emotion. You want to control your emotions. You love order, which makes you dislike any sort of emotional situation, or turbulence. But this repression can cause you much anger and even nervous tension.

There is an unnecessary acceptance to unfavorable circumstances and relationships. This should be avoided. You can manage and organize; you are good with details.

BALANCE

People experience different internal responses to life's challenges. Some withdraw from difficult situations to think them through; others withdraw from their emotions, to try and keep themselves from feeling anything. Some explode with emotions, but allow the explosion to pass quickly. Others linger with their feelings, holding on to them well past the time they should have let them go.

Very often, these are conditioned or emotional responses that emerge without thought or analysis. Maturity and self-development help us to learn new and more effective methods of handling our world and the problems we confront. Your Balance number provides you with the guidance on how best to deal with difficult or threatening situations.

Your Balance is 3

BERNIE, be more lighthearted and optimistic in your approach to problems. Try to work with others toward a mutually satisfying solution. Use your considerable charm to influence the situation.

You can be extremely emotional when faced with a problem. Try to control this tendency; you need a degree of objectivity. You may become too personally attached to the solution you seek, thus failing to see that the outcome can be beneficial to all concerned.

RATIONAL THOUGHT

Your Rational Thought number reveals what can probably best be described as the way you think. Are you a practical, methodical thinker, or a dreamer? Do you frequently allow your imagination to color your perception? Are you unconventional and original in the face of a practical problem, or do you stick to proven methods? This is the kind of information revealed through your Rational Thought number.

Your Rational Thought is 43/7

BERNIE, you are never satisfied with a simple answer. You tend to delve into all the aspects of a question until you feel you understand the problem completely. Then you proceed to solve it with clarity and without hesitation. Few people are able to compete with you when it comes to finding answers. You recognize the underlying factors in a problem situation before anyone else, and you are often able to analyze them in a unique and insightful way. You are a perfectionist and quickly frustrated when you work with people who like to take short-cuts. You appreciate quality more than quantity in any situation.

CORNERSTONE

The first letter of your first name gives an additional indication to your character, particularly as to the manner in which you approach opportunities and obstacles. The first letter is called your Cornerstone.

Your Cornerstone is B

BERNIE, you are emotional, sensitive, and a bit shy. You are friendly and understanding. Peace and harmony are essential to your happiness. You are sensitive.

You are loyal and firm in your beliefs, often clinging to ideas after they have outlived their usefulness. You must learn to change more with the times and become more independent in thought.

SUBCONSCIOUS SELF

Your Subconscious Self reveals how you react to demanding situations. It indicates your ability to get the most out of your talents and opportunities, especially when you face new or challenging circumstances. The Subconscious Self also reveals the areas of our character that need to be strengthened.

Your Subconscious Self is 5

BERNIE, you tend to scatter your energies far and wide, making it difficult for you to complete projects and tasks. You need discipline and organization in your life. You have a strong urge to escape difficulties by forcing change, instead of trying to work out the problem. You learn quickly, however, and adapt well to change. Your success in life depends on your ability to ground yourself and accept responsibilities. A family and career do much to anchor your life.

CHALLENGES

Each of us is born with both strengths and weaknesses. Numerology looks at life as if it were an educational process that is meant to bring out and enhance our talents, and turn our weaknesses into strengths. This serves to complete our being.

The job of becoming whole is one in which we must face our weaknesses and consciously work to improve ourselves. There are four Challenges to be faced during our lives. For many of us, the same challenge is repeated, while others have four distinctly different lessons to learn.

The Challenges on your life's path provide specific lessons that you must attend to, and, in order to inspire and help you, life will place you in situations that require the specific characteristics of your Challenge numbers.

The four Challenges you are required to overcome during the course of this lifetime will influence you during different periods of your life, except for the Third or Main Challenge, which lasts from birth until death. The Challenges are fluid periods of your life, not confined to specific years so much as general periods. All of your Challenges are present at birth, like actors standing in the wings.

THE FIRST CHALLENGE

The duration of the First Challenge usually lasts from birth until approximately the age of 30 to 35.

Your First Challenge is 1

You must learn to be independent. BERNIE, you will be forced to stand up for yourself and your rights. You will be faced with situations in which you will have to choose between standing up for what you think is right versus giving in to another person's demands. You will have to struggle to strengthen and know your own will power.

You will have to learn to be firm and trust your judgment. Don't run with the crowd, be an individual. This whole lesson represents the frontiers of your consciousness. Therefore, you will have to experience much trial and error, sometimes exploding with bursts of aggression, other times being intimidated and letting frustration and anger build within you until you are ready to act on your deepest instincts.

BERNIE, you will learn your own set of values; you will develop into an individual with original and innovative ideas. If you have 1s in your core numbers or in your Hidden Passion this challenge will not be as difficult to learn, or as strongly felt.

THE SECOND CHALLENGE

The Second Challenge usually lasts until the age of about 35 to 40.

Your Second Challenge is 2

BERNIE, you are overly sensitive and too aware of other peoples' expectations. You suppress yourself to avoid feeling conspicuous. You can be overwhelmed by self-consciousness. You fear gossip about you. As a result, you become inhibited. All of this results in a suppression of your own individuality and uniqueness. You yearn to blend into the crowd.

You let your own feelings and emotions play too big a role. Your hypersensitivity causes fear, timidity and lack of self-confidence. And you experience unnecessary fear and emotional turmoil. Little things seem disproportionately difficult to overcome and sometimes have a paralyzing effect. Jealousy can cause much pain and misunderstanding. These negative aspects of the challenge actually spring in part from positive characteristics you possess, especially your acute awareness and intuition. You are an antenna for other people's feelings; you know before a word is spoken how they feel.

BERNIE, you lack the inner strength to maintain your own center, and try to conform to the prevailing emotional atmosphere. This challenge makes you understanding and compassionate; you have an enormous empathy for the inner turmoil of others and can do much good for people with emotional problems.

THIRD CHALLENGE

This Challenge carries much weight and will be felt throughout your life. For that reason, it is also called the Main Challenge. As you master this challenge, your life will come more and more under your own control. You will incorporate the positive aspects of the challenge into your character. This is its purpose in the first place. Therefore, there is implicit in the challenge a chance for great reward. In short, this may be the secret to your success.

Your Third Challenge is 1

(This Challenge is the same as the First, as described above.)

THE FOURTH CHALLENGE

The Fourth Challenge is most strongly felt during the latter part of our lives, beginning at the age of approximately 45.

Your Fourth Challenge is 3

BERNIE, you are your own worst critic. You suppress your individuality and creativity. Each time you want to make an impression, you doubt yourself beforehand, and criticize yourself ruthlessly afterward. Your criticism of yourself is far more severe than anyone else's. As a result, you tend to play it safe by staying on the surface, indulging in superficialities. You rarely express what goes on deep inside of you; instead, you cover up your feelings with humor or perfunctory remarks. You often feel alone and lonely.

BERNIE, your fear of social interaction causes you to strain conversation by making too many jokes and forced joviality. It may help you to find a creative outlet for your imagination, possibly through writing, painting, singing or dance.

At the bottom of the challenge is an effort to bring out your true self. You will learn to truly value your own creative talents above anyone else's judgments. This must be viewed as a process of individuation, in which you become a whole human being, independent and free of the need to conform to others.

PINNACLES

The Pinnacles are four long-term cycles, or periods, on our Life Path. Each Pinnacle represents a particular lesson we are working on. The first Pinnacle usually lasts from birth to between the ages of 30 and 35 (your specific Pinnacle periods are provided below). The middle two Pinnacles each last nine years. The last Pinnacle will stay with you for the remainder of your life.

The Pinnacles are very important. The transition from one Pinnacle to the next is always strongly felt. Your Pinnacles reveal the general conditions and events you will experience during the period. The Pinnacle describes the atmosphere, or the essential challenge you will be faced with. You can prepare yourself for the times ahead by knowing your approaching Pinnacle number.

The transition from one Pinnacle to the next is usually prepared for approximately 2 years in advance. The latter part of that two year period is particularly strong. BERNIE, you will likely make some life-altering decisions -- marriage, job or career change, or any number of major changes in your character.

Perhaps the most strongly felt change -- internally as well as externally -- is the transition from the first to the second Pinnacle. This change usually takes place in your late 20s or early 30s -- the exact date depends on your Life Path number and is provided below. You begin to feel the impact of this coming change approximately two years prior. This is usually a difficult transition, but once crossed usually provides a clear sense of direction in one's life. It also gives you a much firmer sense of your identity. It is a gateway to maturity.

Your First Pinnacle (from birth until age 31) is 8

BERNIE, under the influences of this Pinnacle, you will have greatly enhanced talent for dealing successfully with business and finances. This is a time of material growth, a time of expansion and reward. It is the cycle of harvest. The 8 Pinnacle also increases your personal power. You have sound judgment and vision. In fact, this is the basis of your financial success.

People sense your power and effectiveness. They defer to you much more easily, and look to you for answers. This makes it easier for you to use power without having to be a bully or force your way through situations. They perceive your ableness and want to join you in your vision. Others have faith in you.

You will be able to organize large enterprises. Problems do not threaten you so much as provide a challenge. You yourself sense your enhanced personal powers and feel a growing sense of stability and centeredness. You will be capable of influencing matter in an almost magical way. As a result, you are extremely goal oriented, moving toward the realization of your dreams with confidence and clarity.

BERNIE, your challenge during this period is to maintain a hold on your human and spiritual values. You must remain balanced between heaven and earth. There will be enormous temptations to make money and status your only priorities, excluding the more human or immaterial matters entirely. This will undoubtedly lead to losses. You are being tested and instructed in the real value of money -- it's natural place in life. If money is placed on a high altar, overshadowing all other facets of life, you will become its slave.

If you are balanced in your approach to money, and have proper perspective, this can be a truly rewarding period, both materially and spiritually. That is the true promise of the 8. The number 8 symbolizes the balance between the finite and infinite, matter and spirit. It offers a great opportunity to grow.

Your Second Pinnacle (from age 32 until age 40) is 5

This is a period that will teach the realities of freedom and expansion. BERNIE, you will travel great distances, meet many new and interesting people, experience many adventures, and essentially come to know the world. You are in a period of accelerated experimentation and learning. Experience is your teacher.

Your ability with words is greatly increased. You can write and speak with ease. You are also able to successfully promote yourself. In fact, this is the source of much adventure; new opportunities for work, travel, and exotic experiences present themselves with regularity.

Your challenge is to prevent yourself from becoming a rolling stone. You need to ground yourself in a particular discipline, career, or relationship. This will not limit your freedoms so much as give you a base for operation. Otherwise, you may find yourself skipping from one meaningless job to the next, one superficial relationship after another. You can also fall victim to the abuse of food, alcohol, sex, or drugs.

BERNIE, you may fear being anchored or tied down, which can cause you to skim the surface of a pursuit you enjoy, or important relationships.

You must come to know the true meaning of freedom, which is unconditional love. You give your love and energy without the condition of holding on to a place, a person, or an occupation; and you expect the same in return -- to be loved for what you are, rather than someone who belongs to another. There is a highly spiritual path offering itself that requires detachment without loss of love.

Many turn away from this and instead choose to maintain a superficial relationship with the world, or with other people. You must cultivate your talents, especially your verbal and writing abilities. You are likely a gifted salesperson, or promoter. You must accept limitations as a necessary base for your freedom. Freedom cannot exist without limitations, otherwise you would be without identity, and without existence.

Your Third Pinnacle (from age 41 until age 49) is 4

This is a Pinnacle of hard work and many rewards. BERNIE, you have the opportunity to build a foundation that will last. Your abilities as an organizer, manager, or simply the rock of any institution are greatly increased. You are dependable and reliable. Your ability to fulfill responsibilities is likewise enhanced.

As a result of your industry and perseverance, success is well within your reach. It is a step-by-step process in which you build something by small bricks laid one after another. You will find yourself caring for others in a very material way. Family and in-laws can be burdensome, since you are seen as the cornerstone of the foundation. Your life is preoccupied with details and responsibilities that must be taken care of. You have set in motion projects that are your children, demanding your constant attention. While there are many rewards, there are also many frustrations. BERNIE, your sense of your own limits and the consuming nature of details may at times seem overwhelming.

You must remember that things that last require slow growth. You may mistakenly believe that your progress should be faster, or happen with greater ease.

The need for efficiency, orderliness, and methodical systems limit your creativity.

Your challenge is to be flexible and adaptable. Learn to play more and allow yourself to be more spontaneous.

Children born under this Pinnacle will tend to be serious and affected by the financial limitations of their parents. The child may feel the need to leave home early and start a family of his own. He or she must be encouraged to be more farsighted and flexible. The child should avoid jumping into the harsh realities of life too soon.

Your Fourth Pinnacle (from age 50) is 6

Under this Pinnacle you will be very involved with family, friends, and your community. BERNIE, you will face an increase in responsibilities and duties, but you have a greatly enhanced sense of balance and perspective that allows you to handle emotional issues well.

Your family demands much of your attention. Matters involving spouse and children require much security, love, and sacrifice. You are the centerpiece of your family, the one people come to for solace and understanding. You may feel an increased burden, as you carry the cares of many. You will experience a deep sense of being needed.

This Pinnacle is full of love, closeness, and warmth, but you must rise to the challenges that close relationships bring. BERNIE, you must settle and bring harmony to personal conflicts between others. You are often the only one with perspective in a conflict. It is as if you are the keeper of justice, bringing understanding and compromise to situations that are polarized.

Under the influences of this Pinnacle -- especially at its outset -- people are often married or start families. Children are born, in-laws come into your life. You are the nucleus of a little world.

You must maintain your dignity. This is a period that makes it easier to sacrifice, but you can overdo it, becoming a doormat for others to step on simply to maintain a degree of peace. Know your limits and maintain healthy relationships.

This is a fine period for growth in business and financial matters. You attract people with resources who can help to further your personal goals. Moreover, you are balanced in your approach to business affairs. This can bring many rewards.

BERNIE, your heightened sense of harmony and your genuine compassion makes you an excellent counselor and healer, especially if you already have native talent in any of these areas.

Personal health matters can also surface, causing you to reflect on diet, exercise, and other health habits. Your desire to help others is also increased. But this can lead you to poke yourself into situations where you do not belong, or delve too deeply into other people's personal affairs. Be careful not to meddle or interfere.

The 6 Pinnacle is a time of progress and growth as a full human being. You are capable of developing yourself in many different directions -- as a loving mate and parent; a sound businessperson; and as a pillar of your community. The time requires the balance you possess, since you can easily stretch yourself in too many directions and ultimately feel burned out by the demands in your milieu.

CYCLES

Like most stories, there are three great divisions of our lives: the First, or opening period, finds us groping to find our true nature; at the same time, we are trying to cope with the powerful forces that are present in our environment, our parents and the socio-economic conditions of our family, for example. The Second Cycle, or middle period of our lives, brings about the slow emergence of our individual and creative talents. The initial part of this cycle -- the early and mid 30s -- represents a struggle to find our place in the world, while the late 30s, 40s, and early 50s, sees us with a greater degree of self-mastery and influence over the environment. The Third, or final Cycle, can represent a flowering of our inner being, such that our true nature has finally come to fruition. It is during this period that one has the greatest degree of self-expression and power.

Your First Cycle (from birth until age 31) is 9

This is a period in which a broad view of humanity and a sincere concern for the well being of others will be developed. Tolerance, acceptance, and universal love are the goals of this 9 Cycle, and while such perfection will not be fully achieved, the person under this influence will grow toward these ideals. Humanitarian principles and social service are the keys to personal happiness. All work directed toward the improvement of the general welfare will bring great personal rewards, as well. Hard work directed toward higher ideals is rewarded. Creative talent is also enhanced, especially when it is joined with some larger social purpose or message. There is an element of sacrifice or letting go, as one is asked to forgive past grievances and let go of negative attachments. The person is being asked to live according to a higher ethical standard, with much spiritual and personal enrichment as his reward.

Your Second Cycle (from age 32 until age 58) is 8

You are under an extremely benevolent period for work, career, and financial reward. The key is hard work and the willingness to again dedicate yourself after setbacks or difficulties. BERNIE, you will have greatly enhanced abilities as a manager, organizer, and financial planner. You have a gift for seeing the broad picture and carrying out bold plans. You can gain financial freedom during this period. Business and career activities go well, but require much attention and commitment. You are being pushed to take control of your career or enterprise and bring it to new heights. It is a time when power falls to you, but must be used wisely and with purpose.

Your Third and last Cycle (from age 59) is 6

A time of family, responsibility, and duty. The issues of commitment, marriage, and family all come into sharp focus. When the commitments are made and one responds lovingly and with acceptance, this is a period of much harmony and support. You are greatly needed by those around you. You will be loved and appreciated. This is the best cycle for marriage. In the same way, partnerships go well and much progress is made from joint activities. Conversely, if commitments are not deeply made or are broken, separation and divorce often occur. Any artistic talent you possess will surface and new opportunities for self-expression will present themselves. BERNIE, you are also under very supportive influences for starting a business. This is a time of progress through flexibility, cooperation, and compromise.

TRANSITS

The Transits are the individual letters of your name that combine to form the Essence, which is the number that reveals a great deal about your year ahead. Your name can be seen as a piece of music that vibrates in time. Each note, or letter, has a specific duration and influence over the course of your life. BERNIE, your life, therefore, can be seen as a musical score, with the individual letters making specific contributions at given points, just as notes in a musical piece are played at specific points to give a piece of music its rhythm, character, and nuance. The Transits appear as part of your Progressive Chart and will tell you much about specific influences taking place in your life during given years.

THE PHYSICAL TRANSIT

Your Physical Transit for age 75 is E

BERNIE, you will feel inspired and helpful. There can be change in career, travel, and possibly another residence. You are attracted to new and adventurous experiences, including love affairs. There can also be marriage. Although this is a good letter for finances there may be a lack of focus and a more frivolous attitude, which will adversely affect your chances of real material progress. You feel attracted to new religions and philosophical ideas.

Your Physical Transit for age 76 is E

(The Physical Transit for age 76 is the same as that for age 75, as described above.)

Your Physical Transit for age 77 is R

BERNIE, you have much understanding and insight during this time. It is a time in which you have to deal with money, power, and authority. You have an opportunity to elevate your financial status and personal growth. This is a time in which you will meet the best and the worst. You have to exercise caution in everything you do and every decision you make. Be aware of your surroundings.

THE SPIRITUAL TRANSIT

Your Spiritual Transit for age 77 is S

BERNIE, your feelings run deep and your awareness is higher than usual. It is a period of rebirth and awakening, especially of hidden aspects of your personality. Freedom in a very real and lasting sense can be your reward. You will experience sudden changes in all aspects of your life, accompanied with spiritual and mystical revelations. Your dreams may be rather intense and should be looked into for messages and understanding of your unconsciousness. There will be confrontations with strong-willed people to test the strength of your convictions. This is an exciting time full of surprises and extraordinary events.

ESSENCE

The Essence Number and the Personal Year Number are the two essential indicators of the forces that will influence your life during the course of any year. While the Personal Year runs from January to January, the Essence is most strongly felt from birthday to birthday. For example, if your essence number is 8 for the year 1988, you would begin to feel the influence of that 8 most powerfully after your 1988 birthday. The influence would begin to wane during 1989 and would finally end at your birthday of 1989.

The Essence number indicates the lessons you will be dealing with during that year. It says a great deal about how you will perceive your environment. It also gives clear advice on how you can be most successful during the year, that is, which types of behavior will be supported by your milieu, and which ones will be less effective.

Your Essence at the age of 75 is 14/5

This is an important time of progress and advancement along the lines of your talents. BERNIE, you will experience a relief from burden and increased personal freedom. Any talent you possess in writing, public relations, and the arts will be greatly enhanced. At the same time, business matters flow quickly and new opportunities for expansion seem to arise out of nowhere.

People are attracted to you and seek to help you achieve your goals. You possess an almost magical ability to promote yourself. Your fluency with words is greatly increased. You are more charming and attractive, which opens many new doors.

This is a period of travel and much learning. Opportunities to visit distant lands, encounter foreign cultures and peoples, and learn about life will come to you. Your personal growth will speed up considerably.

As such, many old habits and outdated methods will fade from your life. It is as if you are being catapulted from the old and outworn, into a new and fast-paced period of personal growth and development.

BERNIE, your desire to satisfy your senses will also increase dramatically. You must be careful not to overindulge in food, alcohol, sex, and even drugs.

Sudden events and chance occurrences will come your way. You must be alert to your opportunities. This is not a period of sitting back and waiting, but a time to move ahead rapidly.

Your challenge is to remain focused on your more long term goals. Be disciplined in your work. Don't have too many irons in the fire. Sort out the important projects and endeavors and see them through from start to finish. Focus, discipline, and completion are the keys to your success.

Your Essence at the age of 76 is 14/5

(The Essence for age 76 is the same as that for age 75, as described above.)

Your Essence at the age of 77 is 10/1

BERNIE, you will now begin an entirely new phase of your life. You are on the threshold of a new beginning. Not only will fresh ideas come into your life, but you will accept and even embrace them. It is a time of radical change, and in all likelihood you are ready for it. Now is the time to advance the new, and let go of the old. All inefficient methods will have to be eliminated from your life. In the same way, you must let go of relationships that no longer serve your future. Discard habits and liabilities that you have been holding on to. A new identity is emerging, one that is efficient, innovative, highly creative, and courageous.

Your leadership qualities will rush to the surface. Your environment will demand that you stand up to challenges, and face difficulties head on. You can no longer hide from the truths of your life. The facts are now blatantly clear. BERNIE, you must make a stand. Change is a given. But you possess the power to make those changes. All you need is the will and the energy to enact your plan.

This is a period of struggle and great reward. You have the chance to achieve independence. But it will not be handed to you. You must wrest from old habits and inertia of the past.

As with all beginnings, this one will be marked by false starts and blind alleys. You will be forced to start again and again. You are like a baby learning to walk. There will be falls. You will have to persevere. This is a period in which your willpower will be tested. BERNIE, you are, in fact, forging your own determination. You must not give up. But the rewards are great. The general influences are raising you to new heights of independence, courage, and self-esteem. At the conclusion of this 1 Essence, your self-knowledge and self-respect will be greatly increased, as will your capacity to stand on your own two feet.

PERSONAL YEARS

Your Personal Year number is a strong indication of the trends and circumstances you will experience during the year ahead. Your Personal Year cycles are based on the Universal Year cycles and therefore run concurrent with the calendar year. Transit and Essence cycles are based on the letters of your name and run from birth date to birth date.

There are nine personal year numbers, which makes up a complete Epicycle. Each Epicycle reveals the progression or evolution of a specific part of your growth. BERNIE, your progress along this Epicycle can be seen very logically, from the infancy or beginning of a growth period in your life, to the conclusion or culmination of that process. The 1 personal year indicates your first steps in a new direction. The years that follow indicate your progress along this path, concluding with your 9 Personal Year, which completes the cycle. Below is a description of your current Personal Year. It indicates where you are on the 9 year Epicycle. The Personal Years form the building steps that mark your progress through life.

Your Personal Year for 2015 is 7

BERNIE, you will experience a strong tendency to spend more time alone, to delve inside and find some answers and to reach a better understanding of yourself. This is not a year for social activities nor is it a year to try and reach goals on a material level. You will find that the necessities of daily life seem to be taken care of by themselves. There is no need to be overly concerned regarding your material needs. Without slacking on your daily duties and responsibilities, you can afford to give more attention to yourself. This is a year for inner growth. It is your spiritual and mental presence that requires attention. Improve the quality of your life, read, contemplate and gain insight in yourself. You are important now. Rest and attend to your health. It is during this year that you strengthen the foundation of your life, after all your success in all matters rests upon the strength of your inner self. There will be many strange and unusual events inspiring you to take a closer look at life and an opportunity is there to experience the joy and beauty of life without any artificial or exterior involvement but purely the growing awareness of yourself. To much concern and desire for material rewards, BERNIE, will turn this period of your life into a very bad experience indeed, while a "let go and let god " attitude will make this such a fruitful and pleasant year that you may find yourself wondering what you did to deserve this.

Your Personal Year for 2016 is 8

After last year's constant involvement with yourself and very possible occasional doubts about the state of your business or career you will find this year to be a relief,

BERNIE. Things finally work out. Long postponed checks and promotions come through. You see the light at the end of your financial tunnel and an inner strength and confidence is breaking through. This is your year of harvest and, depending on the effort you put out in the past seven years, your reward will be equally large. There is a beauty in these cycles we can recognize and understand and in doing so we find ourselves "in the flow" and there is no more need to try and struggle upstream. So this year you will have an opportunity to involve yourself fully in work and material growth and bring home the rewards, at the same time a certain detachment is also necessary, for you and for the experience you have because it is not the reward that brings you happiness but your experience of life, which is why before the rewarding eight year you have had such opportunity for growth during the soul-searching of a seven year. Give in to your ambitions, you will find yourself more clear and focused and able to pursue and reach your goals. BERNIE, your power is visible and strong, mental creativity is high, vision and intuition will guide you, and at the same time you are more efficient and focused. PERSONAL MONTHS with.

Relationships of all kinds -- family, friends, and co-workers -- tend to be somewhat unstable during this time.

If you are single, romance may become an important ingredient of this month's experience. BERNIE, you may meet someone new and this person will be an intellectual and spiritual challenge.

The attraction will be based less on physical appearance than on curiosity: there are profound differences between you in point of view and lifestyle, which is fascinating on some level. You learn from this person and, like looking into a mirror, you discover a lot about yourself and the changes that have taken place on a very deep level during the course of this year.

Your Personal Month for January 2016 is 9

BERNIE, January is a 9 Personal Month in an 8 Personal Year. It marks a period of completion. You have gone through a spiritual growth cycle that resulted in a better understanding of yourself. You have gained much insight.

Now you are entering a time when spiritual understanding must merge with the practical and material side of life. You are moving from a 7 Personal Year, which was dominated by spiritual growth, into an 8 Personal Year, which is focused on the material aspects of your life. This may throw you a little off balance. The year begins with some confusion and self-doubt.

Often, there is financial stress. You need to apply yourself to your career and other worldly matters. This is the year of harvesting your rewards, but before that happens, you need to prepare yourself, to regain your footing.

Now you must become more aggressive and ambitious. January requires effort. It also requires a letting go of outdated and outgrown concepts, habits, and relationships.

For that reason, January tends to be emotional and somewhat insecure. However, you will soon pick up momentum, and your personal power increases.

Romantic and love-relationships experience some stresses. BERNIE, you are somewhat distant and aloof, which may make your partner feel left out. Spend some time reassuring your mate.

Your Personal Month for February 2016 is 1

BERNIE, February is a 1 Personal Month in an 8 Personal Year. Now things begin to speed up. Unlike last month, you now feel full of energy and enthusiasm. In fact, you're impatient to start new projects, and must guard against impulsive decisions.

Your career and financial affairs are the areas of your life that require the most attention. There are great opportunities as well as potential dangers. This is the year marked by opposites: times when everything seems to go your way, and other times when it seems the rug has been pulled out from under you. February gives the first indication of what this year will bring but, more important, it challenges you to put your best foot forward, to show what you are made of.

The month may begin with a challenge. You may have to confront one of your biggest fears, which is followed by an opportunity to put that fear to rest once and for all. Courage, determination, and inner strength are the needed ingredients that will make this a successful month and a profitable year. The year can be characterized by the old carrot-and-stick metaphor: February reveals the carrot -- the prize you can obtain -- but it also shows the pitfalls and dangers; in short, the stick.

Relationships are favorable in all areas of your life. Co-workers show support, friends tell you how much they admire you, relatives make it clear they have confidence in you, and your lover makes you feel you deserve the best.

Your Personal Month for March 2016 is 2

BERNIE, March is a 2 Personal Month in an 8 Personal Year. The month demonstrates how you can sometimes make more progress and be more successful by staying in the background than by forcing the issue. March gives you ample opportunity to influence others, to make them listen to your ideas, even to inspire them to do things your way. You are tactful and sensitive, yet also driven and motivated. You find better ways to handle challenging situations.

Later this month, you gain respect and recognition and will find yourself taking on a leadership role. Your authority is impressive because you balance force and strength with diplomacy and tact.

Romance is favorable and, if you are single, you may meet someone through work or a business meeting who will touch your heart.

Your Personal Month for April 2016 is 3

BERNIE, April is a 3 Personal Month in an 8 Personal Year. The events inspire creativity and optimism, as well as a need for flexibility and adaptability. Sometimes, the early part of an 8 Personal Year brings financial challenges and problems. If this is the case, April is the most challenging time of the year.

It is a testing time that forces you to confront your lifestyle and your priorities. With the right adjustments, you can put yourself on sounder financial ground. The month also encourages a certain detachment from trying to control financial matters too much. Once you stop controlling matters too much, your spiritual understanding of life really pays off in a practical and applicable way. Last year's opportunities to contemplate and search for insight -- which may have seemed unproductive at times -- now prove to be your best defense on the battle ground of material progress. You are being forced to achieve a balance between the spiritual and the material, especially this month.

In any case, April will reveal to you how capable you are of doing that. Be generous but don't waste money. Focus on getting things done, but don't let financial reward be your only motivation. Introduce creativity and a playful attitude to the job at hand. And most important; don't let temporary setbacks ruin your ambition. This is a time to reach out, not to suppress.

Romance and relationships continue to be favorable. Social events bring new people. BERNIE, your self-expression and sense of humor improve, and it is easy to make new friends during this time.

Your Personal Month for May 2016 is 4

BERNIE, May is a 4 Personal Month in an 8 Personal Year. It is a time of hard work, progress, and opportunity. As with most of this year, the focus in May is on career and finances. There may well be a great opportunity that comes your way. This opportunity offers all kinds of changes, such as a move of residence (either in June, or in or around November), a change of employer, or a promotion.

The early part of May can be frustrating due to the need to involve yourself with routine affairs and details. You have some catching up to do. You may feel restless and bored. However, later this month brings the opportunity you have been waiting for. You are more organized and manage your time well.

You are dependable and anxious to take care of some long-postponed chores. You may decide to start a remodeling project on your house. Your relationships are more harmonious.

If you are involved in a long-term love relationship, you will find that comfort and security replace some old doubts.

Your Personal Month for June 2016 is 5

BERNIE, June is a 5 Personal Month in an 8 Personal Years. It brings changes and unexpected events. There isn't much use in planning too much this month, because much will happen unexpectedly. This is a hectic and dynamic month. Go with the flow; be flexible; and trust your instinct.

If you are able to adapt to the unpredictable events of this month, your experience will be exciting and adventurous, and quite possibly profitable. However, if you insist stubbornly to stick to your plans and expectations, you will be disappointed.

You are in a position to show your special talents and abilities to people who can be influential in your career.

You are able to think on your feet and your reflexes are sharp. This time is particularly good for those who are in retail, real estate, or some other business that's based on sales and closing deals. Financial gains are often considerable.

Travel is possible and favorable. This is also a good time to move, or change your environment in some way.

Romance is very exciting and, if you are single, you will have to hide out to keep from meeting someone. People gravitate to you and the opposite sex is more than usually attracted to you.

Your Personal Month for July 2016 is 6

BERNIE, July is a 6 Personal Month in an 8 Personal Year. It is an excellent time for business and financial affairs. Respect and recognition for past efforts is followed by financial gain or promotion. You are in a position to ask and receive what you believe to be your due. However, you may find that you are not as diplomatic as you might be. This is your most challenging weakness during this month. Guard against arrogance. Your responsibilities increase possibly as a result of a promotion.

Family affairs, friendships, and romance also move to the foreground and are rewarding and healing. You will be asked to sacrifice some of your time and energy to a younger person or someone who is old or sick. You feel closer to the people around you and you want to be there for them.

Somewhat contradicting to this show of warmth and affection is the lack of tact and sensitivity you may display a number of times during this month. BERNIE, you may be too intent on forcing people to see life as you do, rather than allowing them their own perspectives and their own rates of growth.

The later part of this month brings changes that arise from a chance meeting at a social event. This change may be based on a romantic encounter, and may affect your living situation.

An unexpected travel is also a possibility.

Your Personal Month for August 2016 is 7

BERNIE, August is a 7 Personal Month in an 8 Personal Year. The emphasis changes from outgoing to inward seeking. You are more serious now and self-reflective. You question the wisdom of some of your decisions and choices made during the past ten to twelve months. You keep to yourself, and are generally less social.

You are engrossed in your work and feel a need to do a better job. Your desire for perfectionism is strongly enhanced, which results in self-criticism and impatience with others. At the root of this change in attitude is a spiritual need for clarity and understanding. You want more security, both internally, as well as in your more worldly roles. BERNIE, you would do well spending some time alone for contemplation and meditation. In this respect, August stands out during this otherwise "material" year.

Family and friends take a backseat during this period. There are strong feelings connected to your relationships with your loved ones, but these are experienced and expressed more subtly.

Romance becomes more serious. You share mental, spiritual, and emotional experiences on the deepest level. There is no room for superficial exchanges. Your relationship with the person you are attracted to intensifies and becomes stronger as a result.

Your Personal Month for September 2016 is 8

BERNIE, September is an 8 Personal Month in an 8 Personal Year for you. This is a month with great potential for your career and finances, especially to increase your finances for the long-term.

It is a time to be aggressive and outspoken. Your authority is needed and you will have to apply yourself one hundred percent. However, there is another side to this month. You may feel that you have reached the pinnacle of your career, or that work and other areas of your life have become dull and monotonous. You may feel you need a break.

You are approaching a time of deep inner change. Several times during your life you have reached a point at which you need to break out of a cocoon. All evolution is gradual, but periodically interrupted by sudden bursts of growth, or change.

BERNIE, you are at a stage in your life when you feel ready for such a change. However, you are not clear about the true nature of this change and, while you may feel inspired to force some practical changes now, you should approach this with care. Avoid impulsive decisions as well as any contractual arrangement that would tie you down for a long time.

You need to rely on your own strength and feel confident that you have a certain amount of control over your own future. You should relax and let things develop at their own pace.

Social events are highly favorable and there will be ample opportunity for that.

Your Personal Month for October 2016 is 9

BERNIE, October is a 9 Personal Month in an 8 Personal Year. It marks the beginning of the end of a certain era in your life.

Now you begin to let go of certain expectations you have long held. There is a feeling of emptiness and of "what now?" The time has not yet come to respond to these feelings in a practical way. Now is the time to begin to become comfortable with the need to change. The changes contemplated involve both personal and professional life.

For these reasons, October could become an emotional time. Some melodrama and role playing is actually a subconscious way for you to test the people around you, and the depth of their commitment. You are also testing your own position towards people, career, environment, spiritual beliefs, and other aspects of your life. You have, even if you are not aware of it, already begun the process of selecting what you want to remain in your life and what you want to discard.

This process, which continues through different stages over the next 2 years, is natural and nothing to be afraid of. You are entering a period of reawakening. This means a letting go of some of the comfort and security that surrounded and protected you for many years.

Start giving some of your energy to a good cause that benefits others. Ultimately, it will benefit you. It takes the spotlight of your doubts and questions, and gives you strength and confidence.

For October, practical matters can be handled with ease. It is much better to pay off debts than to incur new ones. Completion is favored over new starts. It is a time to tie up loose ends, not so much to begin new projects. It is a time to clean up and prepare for new things coming into your life.

BERNIE, you are not in the right mood to pay much attention to romance or personal relationships of any kind, unless it's to test the strength of the relationship. You may be a little judgmental and self-righteous and will need to guard yourself against this sort of thing.

Expression Number 7/16

The number of expressions reflects your physical and mental constitution and the orientation of the goals in your life. Some believe that the expression number is your destiny number, because it reflects long-term goals to which you aspire. This number reflects the expression of your inner purpose and personality traits that should belong to you.

The expression number is derived from your full name given at birth, including middle name and surname. Specifically, it is the name recorded in your birth certificate. If at birth you were given several first names, use all these names to calculate the expression number. If you are adopted and have a name given to you by your non-biological parents, use the original name given to you before adoption (If you have one). If your name has a suffix like "junior", "the second", etc., always leave them off because they add nothing significant to your name.

You have an analytical mind and a boundless desire to seek solutions to the mysteries of life. Cultivate your interest in science, philosophy, and even mysticism. You possess clarity of thought and perseverance in the search for truth. You may become a scientist, educator or philosopher. You are motivated by the desire for knowledge and justice. Interactions that are too intense make you feel highly stressed. You like a quiet, private life and need a place where you can get away from all the hustle and bustle. If you manage to get a clear understanding of life, your advice and suggestions will be well-understood by those who need your wisdom.

Your love to learn is rather pedantic. It is better to complete your education in youth and not worry too much about success. Let everything happen by itself and remember that, in your case, achievements and awards come from a higher source.

To keep your sense of harmony alive, contemplation and meditation are necessary. These will guide you along the path of peace and equilibrium. You have good logic and your analytical mind allows you to solve problems easily. Researcher, analyst, inventor, laboratory technician, teacher, lawyer, banker, watchmaker, priest, philosopher, theologian, and administrator - this is a partial list of jobs suitable for you.

Minor Expression Number 7/16

The minor expression number is a summary of a person's "short" name.

The short name is the name that most people call you and that is most appropriate for your social environment. If you are married and you changed your name, then that would be your "short" name. Short name is also the name you use when thinking about yourself. Who are you? Which name best represents your inner self? When calculating the number of minor expression, never use your middle name or initials. Also note that names you used in the past express your feelings and characteristics of that period, not of now. If you no longer use that name, it no longer reflects your essence.

The effect of the short name is weaker than that of the full name. Interestingly, short name in some way compensates for the number (and its corresponding characteristics) in the full name.

Your "short" name increases your desire for knowledge. It helps in learning and makes it easier to concentrate. A minor expression number 7 allows you to accumulate knowledge about the mysteries of life. Your mind is analytical and you do not favor superficial judgments. You need more time for contemplation and meditation than the average person. You like to be left alone.

If your creativity is suppressed, you will fantasize about the possibilities that are out of your reach. Your imagination needs to be guided in a constructive manner; otherwise it will carry you too far away. At the same time you can have great difficulty in expressing deep inner feelings and thoughts.

If you cannot restrain yourself, you are in danger of becoming a chatterbox though such behavior may simply be a hidden way to release energy. Your rich emotional life cannot suppress or reject feeling, and you have the ability to turn this into a fountain of creative and artistic inspiration. Art and self-expression are your ways of living. You need discipline to fully realize your maximum potential. Hard work and discipline can be these anchors and help you express yourself in the best way. While you are endowed with a bright personality, you are still inclined to be taken away by the flow and play with life. You are discreet and love the attention of others, but these qualities can lead to vanity and complacency. You have a chance to live a very full and happy life thanks to your talent of expression. The key to success is a balance between creative impulses and self-discipline.

Minor Heart Desire Number 7

A minor number of heart's desires depends on the vowels that make up your short name. Short name is a reflection of the more complex traits that depend on the full name. Karmic Debts Numbers

Numerology is based on the ancient principle that each of us is a spiritual essence, or soul, which is embodied on Earth many times, gradually improving and accumulating knowledge. On a long evolutionary path of many incarnations, we have accumulated wisdom, making some regular choices which have a positive impact on our future incarnations. We have committed many mistakes, and sometimes been abused by those who had gifts of fate, unlike us. In order to eliminate the bad impacts of once accumulated errors, in this life we have to assume certain liabilities. In numerology, the scope of past mistakes and the need to get rid of them are called karmic debts.

Karmic Debt Number: 13

Those who have karmic debt number 13 have to work hard to perform any task. Obstacles obstruct your way again and again. You often feel yourself discouraged and frustrated, seeing futility in your efforts.

You often think of giving up while achieving your goals. You may be sure that anyone could be the first except for you. Some people with a karmic debt number 13 fall into laziness and negativity. If you have karmic debt number 13, you have to remember that your efforts are not futile, and success can always be achieved. Order is the key to success. You should draw up a timetable of your activities and maintain it for clarity. Keep your surroundings clean and controlled and do not put anything in the closet. If you maintain sustained efforts and persevere, you will inevitably reach what you strive for.

Karmic debt number 16, if present in the numerological map, means destruction of everything obsolete and birth of something new. It means destruction of the human ego and all that it managed to pile up over many lifetimes. It stands for washing, cleaning. All that has been artificially piled up, all that separated a person from their true essence is destroyed. A number 16 is an act of ownership rights to the highest spirituality.

This process can be extremely painful, as accompanied by depreciation of everything that ego has been so long bound by. In fact, it is a result of a struggle between ego and the divine will. Life is constantly changing its course. You should accept yourself at the onset of this process, that is, to accept its inevitability. This humility is the key to the further recovery of a new life. In the destruction of the old, there is a spiritual revival and emergence of updated knowledge. Degeneration affects all aspects of human life. And this life is much cleaner than the one that left.

When number 16 is one of the key numbers, the process of dying and rebirth becomes prolonged, it gradually introduces the person in a high state of consciousness and direct contact with the source of all things.

Number of karmic debt 16 can be a key to development and spiritual growth, if you treat it right. You must come with great faith and entrusting your fate to God. Through this faith the welfare and appeasement will prevail permanently.

Maturity Number 3/12

The maturity number symbolizes an inner desire or dream, which gradually awakens by the age of thirty to thirty-five years. This internal target forces you to better understanding of yourself. With this knowledge there comes confidence and the true values of life and the right direction in life. It is the core enclosed in a shell, it is the gift of maturity. It is a sign that you will not waste time and energy on something that does not meet your true personality.

No matter what age you are at this moment, your life flows on a particular channel, heading for the goal. This goal can be regarded as a reward or as fulfillment of the promises that are not clearly expressed in your efforts. Often you do not even see this goal. The number of maturity is usually clearly manifested after 35 years and the influence of this number becomes greater and greater with age.

When you learn the method of calculating your maturity number, you will realize that it can be used to look into the future. This is a combination of life determining number and number of expressions. Once the number of maturity affects your life, you are going to reach the point from which you can direct your resources (which are described in a number of expression) on the right road (given by the life-determining number). This number reflects the maturity path on which you correctly use your strength to pass your life tests.

With age, you will become a total extrovert, and so your future seems more optimistic. Self-expression and creativity will dramatically escalate. Some kind of artistic activities will inspire you; you can become a writer, an actor or a musician, if you are not yet engaged in one of these areas.

You will become more sociable. Also, you can develop your style in clothing. However, be careful not to become a victim of your appearance, do not use excess glitter and dress extravagantly. Your attitude towards others will be positive and your popularity will grow. If you already have a "3" on the map, especially among the core numbers, you tend to dissipate your energies, and not be very serious about your responsibilities.

If you have a few "3's" or none at all, you can take life too seriously and be dramatic. You should learn to relax and enjoy life.

Number 3 is the maturity of a blessing for adulthood. It brings pleasure, close friendship and good fortune.

Rational Thought Number 7/43

The number of rational thought is the best way to describe your way of thinking. Are you practical, preferring to act methodically, or a dreamer? Do you often let your imagination take you into a dream world? Will you be original in solving problems or do you prefer a traditional solution? This information can be gleaned from the number of rational thought.

Influence of the number of rational thought is greatly increased if you face an intellectual challenge. It is important to remember that this number has almost no effect if a matter under consideration lies in the emotional sphere.

It is very difficult, and sometimes it takes some practice to understand how each number of cards, especially not belonging to the core numbers, can influence certain areas. Novices usually have all the information that gives numerology; "poured in one melting pot" without considering how different areas affect each other. Some of the areas described by your map are often hidden, but they have a strong impact. So they should be read in conjunction with all other numbers.

You will never have simple answers. You try to consider any question from all sides, until the issue would be completely understandable. Then you start thinking about the problem without hesitation. Few people can compete with you in finding correct answers.

Karmic Lessons Number 3, 6, 7, 8

Karmic lessons are the areas where we are weak and that need work. Karmic lessons can be numerous. Each letter of our name corresponds to a certain number. Some numbers may occur more than once in your first names, while others are absent. Karmic lessons point to the absence of one or more one-digit numbers in your name. Karmic force appears when one number is repeated two or more times. The letters and numerals indicate your existing talents and abilities. These characteristics can be compared to a workshop in which there is a certain set of tools available to you. The missing numbers that are not provided in your name represent unavailable tools and they indicate what you need to learn during life.

Typically, long names of 20 or more letters in which there are 8-9 figures are owned by talented people. This is usually a well-formed person with varied interests and rich possibilities of overcoming obstacles.

Short names consisting of less than 15 letters may also contain 8 or more single digits. These may indicate strong personalities, or people seeking power and trying to stand out from the crowd. They are endowed with many talents and can be considered fighters. They are cheerful and able to endure misfortune easier than others.

People with long names, but with a small set of numbers in varying degrees of repeated numbers, may have strong life paradoxes. On one hand, they are struggling with many obstacles in their private life and are faced with strong and sometimes violent passions. Frequently they do not have the ability, like a phoenix, to rise again and face the vicissitudes of fate. On the other hand, these people are often very talented in specific areas; they have the ability to combine all their resources and achieve a very high level in a particular area. Many famous actors, singers, scientists, military strategists, television presenters, and experts have names that do not contain some of the figures, but these people have some kind of focus that gives such a structure to their names.

For people in whose names 3 or more digits are missing, it is important to focus on your career and to be able to withstand any challenges and circumstances. This name gives you energy, passing as if through a keyhole, and thus enables you to achieve great success in a particular area. Before you succeed you must overcome the scourge of fate. Persistence and perseverance create the path to your happiness.

You are very self-critical. Every time you become the center of attention, you only focus on your negative qualities. You have set standards of excellence so high that they are not often accessible to you.

You need to lift your spirits. You must understand that your criticism is necessary to control things; otherwise you cannot do what you truly desire.

You are too serious. Be optimistic and cheerful, enjoy life as it is, and share joy with others. Try to get in situations that require imagination and communication with other people.

The absence of "three" is typical for artists. To succeed, you need to work hard. The effect of this Karmic Lesson is weakened if in your core numbers there is at least one number 3.

You have problems with communication and responsibility to others. Marriage and the establishment of other personal relationships aren't easy for you. You should learn to express your true emotions.

You can often feel abandoned and lonely but do not understand why. This is because you often begin a relationship without making them warm enough. In this case you do not express genuine affection or concern. The relationships between you and others become superficial. You need to learn how to create sincere relationships.

Understand that close friends and lasting relationships are important for you. Learn to give and if necessary, to sacrifice. This is the only sure way to true friendship and long love.

If among your core numbers there is at least one number 6, then the effect of this karmic lesson will be weakened.

You need to deepen your knowledge and talents associated with a particular discipline. You have no desire to improve yourself or your talents. You must learn to treat yourself critically, but without self-hatred, to get the best of your abilities. Learn not to judge things by their external characteristics.

The effect of this Karmic lesson weakens if you have at least one number 7 among the core numbers.

You can earn a lot of money and even be a good businessman, but there are ups and downs in your financial affairs due to your recklessness.

You have big problems with authority figures, and this comes from your stubbornness. As a result, you often can't accurately assess a situation.

You need to learn how to handle money. You can earn enough money but it often slips through your fingers. The karmic lesson should teach you to limit yourself. Learn how to handle money effectively.

The effect of this Karmic Lesson becomes weaker if among your core numbers there is at least one number 8.

Balance Number 3

Generally, people respond in different ways to the challenge of destiny. Some people shy away from difficult situations to ponder them over quietly while others flee from their feelings and try to protect themselves. Some experience a rapid surge of emotions that quickly fades, and still others do not directly express their feelings, even when these feelings are stable.

Very often people demonstrate their emotional response without forethought or analysis, and a sort of inner strength compels us to react in this way. Take the mature approach and work upon yourself. This will help you learn new, more effective ways of communicating with the world and solving problems. The number of balance helps us to get out of difficult or threatening situations.

You must be more optimistic - you can find easier ways of solving problems. Try to work together with others to find a solution acceptable for everybody. Use your unquestionable charm in difficult situations.

It may be difficult for you to successfully express yourself in one area because of your wide variety of interests.

You tend to rush from one person to another and from one job to another, so you find it difficult to have a serious relationship.

Subconscious Confidence Number 5

Your subconscious confidence reflects the inner confidence in your strength and ability to react decisively to unexpected situations. This number reflects the ability to correctly assess and react to a situation.

Your energy and focus are widespread, so it is hard for you to perform specific tasks and projects. You need discipline and organization. You have a strong desire to avoid difficulties so you often change your focus when things get rough. You learn quickly and adapt well to change. Your success in life depends on its stability and whether or not you have a sense of responsibility towards your family and career.

Planes of Expression

Every human being lives through this life and feels it on four distinct levels - physical, mental, emotional and intuitive. Definitely, every of these spheres has its own way of accepting information.

Our physical body feels this world through touching and tasting everything, receiving both delight and hurt.

Our mental side senses invisible things, which cannot be touched with common five senses, still can be felt on another, higher level.

Our inner world is also rich in different emotions and feelings. These are led by our heart. This is also another field and here many things are felt, though not seen and touched. We cannot express their meaning in words, but surely can do that with our affections.

There's another level, which is even higher than previous two. This is the sphere of intuition. Sometimes, something can occur to our mind, really illusive and faint, which can be hardly understood. Nevertheless, we feel that and understand how to act in this or that situation, what would be good and what would be wrong. Many people argue whether intuition exists, but we all know that such things happen quite frequently.

No matter what, all these four powers are present in each of us. Some of us use one or two of them at full, the others are capable to use more, and for everyone these preferences are different. Thanks to numerology, we can understand the meaning of each plane more clearly.

Planes of Expression Mental Number 3, 4

There is a strong presence of artistry in you. You're original and colorful. You are attracted by architecture, fashion and something of the kind. Your uncommon vision can turn simple landscape or office into something really beautiful.

Nevertheless, you may be scattered-minded and your thoughts seem to run to and fro, never settling for long in one place. You ought to work on your concentration and discipline.

Planes of Expression Physical Number 9, 4

You may be prosperous in politics, publishing or some public service. Summing up, you're successful in professions that require working with public. You desire to deal only with first rated businesses.

You give many thoughts for the well being of the society. You're compassionate, tolerant and open-handed. You are a wise and merry personality.

At times, you are dreamy and not very practical. Quite frequently, other folks don't understand you and think that you are unconcerned and detached.

In your own way, you're trying to leave a good impression about your personality, but may give promises you won't be capable to follow. Nevertheless, enhancing your major qualities, you may become actually famous.

Planes of Expression Emotional Number 4/13, 6

You don't believe emotions. You require controlling them. You are up for order and peace and emotions can destroy that. Notwithstanding, trying to avoid them may bring you to a nervous state with great tension.

At times, you may undergo relationships or other dealings with bad ending. You should watch these matters.

You're very resourceful and can easily organize your work and perfectly manage time. Besides, you're good with details.

Age span for life cycles 0-31-40-49-E

A pinnacle is a four long-term cycle in the way of life. Pinnacles are specific attributes that are assimilated into your life. This is measured by requirements and opportunities that the culmination of the cycle brings. You have to deal with properties of these climactic cycles. As a result, the culmination of the cycle adds something to your personality.

The first culmination of the cycle lasts from birth until about the age of 36, minus your life-determining number. Each of the following two climactic cycles continues for 9 years. The fourth and the last, culminating cycle continues until your death.

Change of cycle always occurs between 9th and 1st personal year. The culmination of the cycle always occurs within a period of intense transformation of our lives. We start counting from the first climactic cycle, so each person can have only three shifts round the culmination of a lifetime.

You can prepare for the coming days in advance, knowing the number of future climactic cycle and the time when it begins.

Life cycle 1 (0-31). Pinnacle 8. Under the impact of this culmination, you will have a talent for successful business and financial affairs.

Culmination increases your personal power and you possess fairness and acumen. These qualities are the basis of your financial success. People are able to sense your strength and they care about your opinion and often ask you questions.

You can organize a large enterprise and problems do not burden you very much. You will feel the increased strength, as well as the growing sense of stability and balance. You can have almost a magical impact on the development of projects. You are very determined. You quietly and persistently move towards fulfillment of your desires. Your objective in this period is to balance human and spiritual qualities. You will have a strong desire to make money and make it your only priority while completely excluding other intangible human values. This path will inevitably lead to losses. You'd better learn the real value of money and its role in your life. If you put money on the altar, you will become their slave.

If your attitude toward money gets reasonable and moderate, you will have a proper perspective, in this case for you the culmination of 8 will be a blessed period, both materially and spiritually. Number eight represents the equilibrium between finite and infinite, between material and spiritual. It offers excellent opportunities for growth.

Life cycle 2 (31-40). Pinnacle 5. This period will teach you freedom. You will travel over long distances, meet new people, have new experiences and adventures and learn a lot about life. You are in a period of experimentation and learning. Your teacher is your life experience.

You will cope better with words; will easily express your thoughts. You will be regularly presented new opportunities for work, travel and exotic experiences.

Your task mustn't be like a stone that is rolling downhill. You should follow some specific cases, career or relationships. Note that these are not limits of your freedom. Many opportunities will give you a solid foundation for further action. Otherwise, you'll be rushing from one meaningless job to another, from one superficial relationship to another. Also, you can become a victim of abuse, whether that be food, sex or drug abuse.

You should know the true meaning of freedom, which is not always similar to love. You can give your love and energy, but not be tied to a certain place, or to a certain person. This is a sublime way, when you are offering yourself and requiring segregation in love. Many people go away from this path.

You need to develop talents, especially those associated with languages and literature. You'll probably be a good salesman or manager.

You must understand that restrictions are the basis of your freedom, which does not exist without limitation; if you don't accept it, you will not be a fully developed individual and will not be able to completely exist.

Life cycle 3 (40-49). Pinnacle 4. This culmination will call for hard work and getting awards for it. You have the opportunity to build a long-term foundation. You will improve skills of organizer, manager or just founder of any company. You are resolute and reliable. As a result of persistence and perseverance, you are close to success. This process resembles the construction of a brick building.

Life is filled with responsibilities and duties that you must perform. Projects are in motion, they are like small children and they require constant attention. Despite evident progress, troubles are possible. You have to remember that many things require gradual growth over a long period of time. Although, you mistakenly believe that they could move faster or with less effort, but that is not possible.

Your creative abilities are limited by needs of order and methodical approach. Your task is to be flexible and easily able to adapt. Learn how to do everything playfully, allow yourself to perform spontaneous actions.

Children born to this culmination are usually serious, and they are affected by their parent's financial difficulties. Such a child may want to leave home early and have his or her own family. Perhaps you should look forward and be more flexible.

Life cycle 4 (49-E). Pinnacle 6. In this culmination, you'll be very busy with your family, friends and society. At first you'll receive more duties and responsibilities. You have a developed sense of balance and perspective that will allow you to easily resolve any emotional issue.

Families require a lot of attention. Issues relating to children and spouses should be resolved peacefully, with love and sacrifice. You are the head of the family. In your family you are the only person whom everyone expects solace and understanding. This culmination is full of love, intimacy, warmth, but you must meet the requirements necessary for a healthy relationship. You make harmony and are able to resolve conflicts between people, you remind a custodian of justice, who brings understanding and compromise in difficult situations.

Under the influence of this culmination, especially at the beginning, people often marry and start a family. You'll set up legal relationships and have children and become the nucleus of a small microcosm.

At the same time, you must respect yourself and not let others walk all over you. Remember your limitations and set a healthy relationship.

This is a favorable period for growth in business and financial affairs. You'll attract people with enough money and that will help you in your work. You are balanced in dealing with cases in business and this will bring you rewards.

An increased sense of harmony will be a great compassion for a counselor or a doctor, especially if you are naturally endowed with these talents. You may be disturbed by problems with your health, so pay attention to diet, exercise and follow a healthy lifestyle.

You no longer want to help others. Be careful to mind only your own business.

This is a time of progress and growth. You are able to develop yourself in many ways: as a loving friend or parent, as a solid figure in business, as a pillar of society. This culmination requires balance, which you must create by all means; otherwise you will get stretched out in too many directions or simply burn out from excessive requirements of your environment.

Challenges Numbers 1, 2, 1, 3

Everyone is born with strengths and weaknesses of character. While receiving an education, a person must discover and develop their talents and transform weakness into strength. In general, that is the essence of our being.

Challenges are very important because they tell you about your specific weaknesses. If you know the nature of your weakness, you get a handy tool for turning weakness into strength. Without this knowledge you remain a victim. Your shortcomings are an obstacle between you and a full, rich experience and the satisfaction of living your life.

Your life determining number, birthday and challenge are based on your date of birth. They link you to the moment when you come into this world and become a human being with a unique individuality. All these numbers are connected to each other and help to understand each other; they are essentially a single package of information.

There are four challenges that people might encounter during their lifetime. For most people, some challenges are repeated, for others - all four challenges are different. In fact, a challenge is a call for exploring some of the negative character traits or in other words, a life task.

Each challenge corresponds to a certain period of life, except the third, or main challenge, which is stretched throughout the entire period from birth to death.

Challenges can occur not only at any age, but their arrival and changes appear due to the dynamics of karmic debts. At time of your birth all of your challenges are with you.

The first challenge becomes relevant in the early period of your life, and often lasts until early adulthood. Its duration depends on how soon you are willing to face the problem and resolve it. Before you've fully explored the first challenge, however, the second challenge will begin. The most intense second challenge comes in adulthood.

The third, or main challenge, is unique. It can last throughout life, and its impact is stronger than that of the rest of the challenges.

The fourth and last challenge comes into force during the period of late maturity, and working on it falls in the final stage of life.

Life cycle 1 (0-31). Challenge 1. You must learn to be independent. You may encounter situations where you must safeguard your interests and that is what you should do. You have to fight, building up your own strength and ability to make strong-willed decisions.

You must learn to be persistent and to have your own opinions. Do not run with the crowd, be yourself. In fact, this lesson should expand the boundaries of your consciousness and in this way, you will be confronted with many difficulties. From time to time your own anger and aggression will rise up. Sometimes fear and sadness may overtake you, but it will only last until you find yourself on unshakable footing and rely on underlying instincts.

Learn how to make your own assessment of the situation, and you become a person of original and innovative ideas.

Life cycle 2 (31-40). Challenge 2. You are very sensitive and highly dependent on the opinions of others. You repress yourself, trying to be inconspicuous. You may feel overwhelmed with insecurities or afraid of others gossiping at your expense. And as a result of this, you fall into a state of inhibition. Normally, this situation leads to suppression of individuality and independence. You want to blend in with the crowd and just disappear.

We must allow our own feelings and emotions play a role. Hypersensitivity to the causes of fear, depression and lack of confidence is not good. You are consumed by unnecessary fear and emotional turmoil.

Small problems seem like huge and insurmountable obstacles, and this produces a paralyzing effect on you. Envy can bring a lot of pain and confusion.

These negative impacts, identified by Hail, PA grow the same soil, which is a substrate for overcoming them. Negative aspects are the other side of your heightened awareness of things and deep intuition. You, as a sensitive antenna, perceive the experience of others: before someone utters a single word, you already feel the emotional waves.

You lack inner strength to keep your emotions in check and you can easily give in to the atmosphere that surrounds you. This leads you to a greater understanding and compassion, you have a high sense of ownership to the spiritual experiences of others, and you have to do good for people.

Life cycle 3 (40-49). Challenge 1. You must learn to be independent. You may encounter situations where you must safeguard your interests and that is what you should do. You have to fight, building up your own strength and ability to make strong-willed decisions.

You must learn to be persistent and to have your own opinions. Do not run with the crowd, be yourself. In fact, this lesson should expand the boundaries of your consciousness and in this way, you will be confronted with many difficulties. From time to time your own anger and aggression will rise up. Sometimes fear and sadness may overtake you, but it will only last until you find yourself on unshakable footing and rely on underlying instincts.

Learn how to make your own assessment of the situation, and you become a person of original and innovative ideas.

Life cycle 4 (49-E). Challenge 3. The most severe critic for you is? You! You suppress your individuality and creativity. Whenever it's time to impress, you begin to have doubts about the necessity of this step, and then fall into a rigid self-criticism. The critical attitude you have towards yourself is much stronger than the one you have towards other people.

As a result, you try not to take risks and always stay on the sidelines of life. You tell others what you have on your mind, replacing sincerity with humor and empty phrases.

You often feel lonely. You fear social activity, which always induces great stress. You are always on alert and joking. Your creative energy can be expressed in art, especially through writing, drawing, singing and dance.

Efforts should be made to give out your true essence. You have to assess your talents and capabilities, with as little as possible based on the opinions of others. This process, in essence, is a form of individual formation, in which you transform into a human being worthy of respect. Become free and independent.

Personal Year Number: 8

The influence of the personal year begins in January and ends in December. A peak period equal to 3 months takes place at the end of each year. During the first three months of the year, the influence of the previous year decreases and the current year continues to build up energy. The month with the highest energy level, and thus the highest influence, is September. After this period, the influence of the subsequent year appears. Thus there is a period in which the effects of the two years are joined together: the impact of the old year wanes and the impact of the next year increases.

The influence of personal annual cycle is very strong; perhaps stronger than that of any other cycle. There are also other cycles that affect you at this time, but each of them acts on their own. The impact of cycles, based on date of birth, is felt as an influence from outside. Events and circumstances resulting from other forces change the charge or direction of your energy. The order in which stages follow one another are always the same: 1, 2, 3 and so on up to 9, and then all over again.

This is a year of gathering crops, and depending on how you have worked for the past seven years, you may receive an appropriate reward.

In these cycles, there is certain beauty. You somehow know that you are carried by the flow and do not have to fight it.

You can work full time and enjoy the growth of material prosperity. At the same time, you are required to have a certain detachment because happiness is yet to come, and now you are just getting new experiences in life. That is why before the eighth year, you had so many opportunities for growth.

Give up your ambitions and perceive yourself as a wise and serious person who is able to achieve great things.

Your strength is obvious and mighty; you have intellectual and creative abilities. Your insight and intuition are at their utmost peak. Perhaps you should expect some losses, like bankruptcy or an accident. However, do not succumb to fear and doubt. Only in this case will there be a good year.

Personal Month Number: 9
